EXPERT CRANE EARNS RECERTIFICATION AS MEMBER OF ISNETWORLD

November 7, 2019 – Cleveland, Ohio – Expert Crane, an overhead crane manufacturing company located in Cleveland, Ohio with service locations across the United States, has earned their recertification as a member of ISNetworld.

ISNetworld helps crane manufacturers like Expert Crane, promote transparency and workplace safety through accreditation courses and certifications. To become a member and sustain this status with ISNetworld, Expert Crane's technicians must complete rigorous and continual training both onsite and online. The technicians complete training courses every two months in specific overhead crane areas, and every two years they must go through their full safety training to keep their certification.

"Our certification with ISNetworld allows us to provide continual training to our technicians so that we can provide the best overhead crane preventative maintenance, inspection programs, installations, and modernizations to our customers," stated Jim Doty, President. "This continual training teaches our technicians the most advanced crane safety techniques for superior workplace safety."

Founded in 1977, Expert Crane is a leading manufacturer of overhead steel cranes and components. In addition to their complete line of DX, MX, and TX cranes, BX below the hook lifting devices, runways, and controls, Expert Crane offers immediate crane service.

Expert Crane provides preventative maintenance, inspection programs, installations, and modernizations of their overhead cranes to their customers. They offer 24-hour emergency crane service with service locations across the United States.
